DATE: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 2009

ALL DAY: Books Are Fun (YAMWI fundraiser book sale)

7:30 AM - 8:30 AM - REGISTRATION

8:00 AM - Music as Therapy - The role of music is woven into the fabric of our lives. From the lullabies of our earliest memories to the songs that date the moments we remember, music serves to not only reflect our memories, but also provide the therapy to help us through our daily as well as our lifetime struggles. This session will briefly explore the role of music in our lives.

Lori Lincoln, MA, Lori Lincoln is an Associate Professor of Social Science at Mount Marty College. She has over 25 years of experience in the fields of education and mental health.

Michael Miranda, CPA and Colleagues - Professional Musicians

8:30 AM - Welcome & Introductions - Matt Michels, RN, BS, JD, Michels & Associates, Prof. LLC

Presentation of Awards - Thomas Stanage, PhD, Executive Director, Lewis & Clark Behavioral Health Services, Inc.

8:45 AM – 10:15 PM - Keynote: Mobbing in Our Lives – Mobbing is one or more individuals ganging up to force someone out of the workplace through rumor, innuendo, intimidation, discrediting, and humiliation. Seriously damaging people, destroying teamwork and trust, negatively impacting organizational effectiveness, contributing to possible violence, this subtle and status-blind form of harassment puts everyone at risk.

Keynote Presenter: Gail Pursell Elliott, “The Dignity and Respect Lady”, is a professional speaker, trainer, and consultant and founder of Innovations “Training With a Can-Do Attitude”. She is coauthor of the book Mobbing: Emotional Abuse in the American Workplace, author of the book School Mobbing and Emotional Abuse, and the weekly email column Food for Thought which has an international readership. She has appeared on such television programs as ABC World News NOW, MSNBC’s Deborah Norville Tonight, CBS News, and the Workplace Violence Today program on talk radio.

10:30 AM – 12:00 NOON - SESSION I

1) School Wide Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (S-W PBIS) – this presentation will look at the components of S-W PBIS and its benefits to schools and students.

Presenter: Becky Cain, BS, currently serves as Special Education Programs Representative for the South Dakota Department of Education. She has worked with children with emotional and behavioral issues for over 10 years and with the state of SD for 3 ½ years.

2) Counseling Native Americans – this presentation will provide a brief history of Native American issues which will provide an understanding of the issue of mistrust of Non-Indians. It will also describe particular considerations for counselors when working with Native American clients.

Presenter: Sarah Shortbull, BS, is actively pursuing her Master’s degree in both School and Community Counseling. Her areas of interest in counseling are children and families affected by military issues, specifically deployments and working with Native American children and families.

3) Walking on Shifting Sands – the daily dementia experience – this presentation will focus on the challenges, frustrations and rewards of caring for a loved with dementia. We will look at the physical, emotional, legal and financial issues for both the caregiver and their loved one.

Presenter: Holly Hoing, AS, has been active in hospice and end of life care since 1980. She currently serves as director of Countryside Hospice providing community education in areas of end of life, grief and loss advance directives, cancer care and Alzheimer’s.

Presenter: Josette Lindahl, MD, PhD, completed a Doctor of Medicine Degree at the University of South Dakota School of Medicine, Vermillion, SD. She also completed a PhD in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemistry, both at USD. She is employed as a Psychiatrist at the South Dakota Human Services Center, Yankton. Dr. Lindahl has had numerous prestigious honors and awards, including the 2002-2003 Nation Institutes of Mental Health Outstanding Resident of the Year. She is highly respected for her commitment to research directed at improving the lives of those with mental illness.

5) Psychosexual Evaluation and Sex Offender Treatment Approaches with Adult and Adolescent Sexual Offenders – a basic presentation covering referral processes, psychosexual evaluation processes, sexual recidivism risk assessment, and treatment and management approaches.

Presenter: Dr. Scott Pribyl, Ed.D., is a Licensed Psychologist at Great Plains Psychological Services in Sioux Falls, SD, having provided mental health services in and around Sioux Falls since 1987. Dr. Pribyl has worked in the mental health field since 1978 and has extensive experience with Critical Incident Stress Debriefing; stress management; parenting and life adjustment; divorce and family mediation; family violence and sexual abuse issues. Dr. Pribyl also performs psychological, psychosexual and forensic evaluations and accepts attorney and court referrals.

6) Guardianship, Advance Directives, Individual and Estate Planning: Ideas to “Take Charge” – a discussion of the legal process for individual planning, including advance directives (Business and healthcare), estate planning and guardianship. There will be time for questions and case discussions.

Presenter: Matt Michels, RN, BS, JD, (Michels and Associates, Prof. LLC) is a healthcare law attorney with vast experience in healthcare legal issues. A former U. S. Naval Lieutenant Commander, Michels served as a Federal Prosecutor, International Law Attorney, and Medical Law Legal Counsel at the Naval Legal Services Offices, Mayport, FL. He is a Registered Nurse and holds a Juris Doctorate Degree.

12:00 PM – 1:30 PM - Luncheon Presentation: Advocating for Children – Lt. Governor Dugaard will discuss his experiences, challenges and opportunities in advocating for children in need.

Presenter: Lt. Gov. Dennis Dugaard, BS, JD, worked ten years in trust banking before accepting a position with Children’s Home Foundation in Sioux Falls, SD. In 2003, he became Executive Director of Children’s Home Society of South Dakota, a state-wide nonprofit organization serving abused and neglected children and battered women. Dennis was elected to the South Dakota Senate in 1996, 1998 and 2000. He was elected Lt. Governor in 2002 and 2006.

1:30 PM –3:00 PM – SESSION II

7) Sensory Diet for Autism (Simple Sensory Solutions that Build Success) – a Sensory Diet is an activity program that is developed to meet children’s needs that have sensory processing disorders. A sensory diet includes touch, movement and balance, body positions and ways to calm children.

Presenter: Twyla Kleen, RN, BBA, C, CRRN, CDDN, is a Special Education nurse that has a background in Rehab and Developmental Disabilities. She works with children from early childhood till high school. Autism is one of the many diagnoses that she works with. Storm Lake Schools has approximately 308 special education students.

8) Families as Advocates – Family members are de factor case managers and often do not have the resources or information available to help their family member navigate among the various agencies necessary to achieve recovery. NAMI has resources available to help become better advocates.

Presenter: Phyllis Arends, AA, RN, is currently Executive Director of NAMI South Dakota. She has spent many years as a nurse and Director of Nursing in long-term care.

9) Brain Injury and Aging – this session will cover the topic of aging with a brain injury, including discussion of cognitive, physical/medical and psychological aspects.

Presenter: David S. Demarest, PhD, is a Clinical Neuro-psychologist and the director of psychology and Neuro-psychology services at On With Life, in Ankeny, Iowa. He has worked in the field of brain injury for over 20 years.

10) Drug ID and Effects – will go over several types of drugs, the effects and street names. Will show different drug related items seized in previous drug investigations and how they are used. Will leave time for questions and discussion.

Presenter: Detective Darren Moser, was employed by the City of Yankton in 1996 as a Patrolman. In 2000 he was promoted to Corporal. In 2002 Darren became a certified K-9 handler within the department. In 2007, he was promoted to Detective and a majority of his investigations are narcotic related.

11) Mobbing Survival Skills: To Be or Not To Be – People who are targets of a mobbing process have been thrown from what they believed was an orderly world into a state of chaos in which many points of reference are no longer valid. This confusion is going to prompt them to question all points of reference, including the ones deep inside of them. Their sense of personal dignity can be compromised unless they take steps to protect and preserve that which they value most.

Presenter: Gail Pursell Elliott, “The Dignity and Respect Lady”, is a professional speaker, trainer, and consultant and founder of Innovations “Training With a Can-Do Attitude”. She is coauthor of the book Mobbing: Emotional Abuse in the American Workplace, author of the book School Mobbing and Emotional Abuse, and the weekly email column Food for Thought which has an international readership. Pat Kellar, MA, is Director of Human Resources/Staff Development at Ability Building Services, Inc. in Yankton, SD.

3:00 PM – 4:30 PM – SESSION III

13) School Mobbing and Emotional Abuse – Schools are floundering in a sea of information with regard to the issue of school mobbing/bullying behavior. Bulling and Violence are outcomes. Mobbing is the process that gets you there. Insight and awareness can create a healthier climate in your school and community.

Presenter: Gail Pursell Elliott, “The Dignity and Respect Lady”, is a professional speaker, trainer, and consultant and founder of Innovations “Training With a Can-Do Attitude”. She is coauthor of the book Mobbing: Emotional Abuse in the American Workplace, author of the book School Mobbing and Emotional Abuse, and the weekly email column Food for Thought which has an international readership. She has appeared on such television programs as ABC World News NOW, MSNBC’s Deborah Norville Tonight, CBS News, and the Workplace Violence Today program on talk radio.

14) The Changing Mental Health Rights Dynamic - Mental health rights are often thought of as clear statements of agreed to understanding that have been in place and recognized for long periods of time. However, the reality of mental health rights is that they are in continual flux, developing, evolving and at times contracting. A review of selected historical and current trends will clearly illustrate that mental health rights remain a very dynamic area.

Presenter: Robert J. Kean, JD, serves as Executive Director of South Dakota Advocacy Services, the state designated protection and advocacy system, since inception. SDAS is a private non-profit corporation providing an array of advocacy services statewide to individuals and their families who are eligible for services and whose concerns or issues are related to their disability or illness. Kean has extensive experience serving individuals with disabilities.

CONFERENCE GOAL:

The conference logo depicts the overall conference goal of providing training to healthcare professionals and caregivers in their day to day dealing with persons living with mental health issues. The main design resembles the sunshine, the warmth gained by caring for others, and the vitality of good health. The rays indicate how mental wellness adds brightness all around. The bold print reminds us that “wellness” is the core of this conference. The word “conference” at the bottom of the logo denotes that this training will provide a strong foundation for caregivers and professionals. The spacing of the letters indicates that there is room for everyone to support this event and a need for everyone to care about mental wellness.
